Tried for the line again, Brian had to leave at 20min in. We got silted out and lost ken, then found him as we did the 3 minute safety on way up to look for him. We submerged and did a 30 foot transit back towards beach (I thought) was going wrong way (pointy end verses flat end on small compass) Surfaced nearer the island than the beach, did surface swim back since Ken was at 500.
